- U.S. national (includes natives of American Samoa or Swain's Island)
- U.S. permanent resident who has an I-151, I-551, or I-551C (Alien Registration Receipt Card)

- Indefinite Parole and/or Humanitarian Parole
- Cuban-Haitian Entrant, Status Pending
- Conditional Entrant (valid only if issued before April 1, 1980)

If you have only a Notice of Approval to Apply for Permanent Residence (I-171 or I-464A), you are not eligible for federal student aid. If you are in the U.S. on an F-1 or F-2 student visa only, or on a J-1 or J-2 exchange visitor visa only, you cannot receive federal student aid. Also, persons with G series visas (pertaining to international organizations) are not eligible for federal student aid.

In the event a student is being sponsored by an individual or company in the U.S., an Affidavit of Support and supporting financial documents must be submitted by the sponsor on behalf of the student. After issuance of Form I-20 A-B, an advance cash deposit is required to be on file within the Business Office in the amount of the remaining total cost of the term, including required insurance premium, prior to the registration day of the respective term. Otherwise, Charleston Southern University reserves the right to deny the student attendance for that term.

- All international students are required to have specific health insurance coverage. The total cost includes repatriation and medical evacuation options. One part of this amount must be paid at the beginning of the first semester and the remaining amount at the beginning of the second semester. Coverage is provided on a 12-month basis even in the event the student is unable to continue attendance at Charleston Southern University. If the student begins the semester in the spring term, an additional month's fee may be due. Contact Barbara Mead in the CSU International Services Office for more information regarding CSU's insurance. The insurance amount is subject to change each academic year.

CSU seeks to ensure that our students receive the best medical attention if any unforeseen circumstance arises.

In the past, CSU has allowed international students to purchase their own insurance policies from their home countries. Since this option has not proven to be effective in many cases, the university now purchases the insurance for students in advance of their arrival, placing the cost on their account and billing statement.

TOTAL INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL STATEMENT =
$28,280 for students 23 & younger
$28,856 for students 24 & older

NOTE: Please be aware that while a financial statement is required for the complete year, fees for tuition and room/board are paid on a semester basis.

Payment of costs for each semester must be paid in full no later than Registration Day of each academic term. Please refer to 2009-2010 CSU Undergraduate Catalog online at www.charlestonsouthern.edu.
