Description: The Department of Physical Education originally fell under the Division of Social Sciences and with successive organizational restructuring has been part of the College of Arts & Sciences and the College of Science and Mathematics. From 1988-2000 the Physical Education Department was combined with the Biology Department to form the Department of Life Sciences chaired by the Chairman of the Biology Department. With the addition of the Athletic Training Program in Fall of 2000, the Physical Education Department became the stand-alone Department of Kinesiology.
