STIPULATIONS and GUIDELINES:
• Competition results announced by March 22, 2013.
• Must be accepted for admission to Charleston Southern University to receive offer of award.
• Recipients of music awards must attend Charleston Southern University, study applied/studio, participate in ensembles, and perform as soloist as required by the Horton School of Music.
• The Horton School of Music reserves the right not to award scholarships if applicants do not, in the opinion of the faculty, meet the requirements and standards of performance excellence and potential that such awards merit. This also applies to the renewal of the full-tuition scholarship for subsequent semesters. The decision of the HSM faculty is final.
• Music scholarships will be included in an overall package awarded by CSU Financial Aid.
• All federal, state and institutional scholarships, including music and academic scholarships, will be applied toward Full-Tuition Scholarship. Should the recipient be receiving state funded scholarships, such as the S.C. Palmetto Fellows, S.C. Life, S.C. Hope or S.C. Tuition Grant, the recipient must meet eligibility requirements to renew these scholarship(s) in order for the Full-Tuition Scholarship to apply in subsequent years.
