MUSIC CAMP AT A GLANCE

HOST SCHOOL & LOCATION
Charleston Southern University is one of the largest accredited, private universities in South Carolina. Affiliated with the South Carolina Baptist Convention, the University offers 44 undergraduate majors and 10 graduate degree programs and enrolls over 3,600 students. Founded in 1964, Charleston Southern is located just minutes from beautiful Charleston, S.C. The campus is convenient to many summer recreation activities, including area beaches, historic downtown Charleston and Fort Sumter, Lowcountry attractions, and the neighboring regions of Hilton Head, Savannah, Georgia, and the S.C. Grand Strand.

FACILITIES & EQUIPMENT
Camps will enjoy the use of state-of-art facilities while at Charleston Southern. Whittington Hall, one of the newest buildings on campus, includes classrooms, faculty studios, a large rehearsal hall, percussion studio, practice rooms, instrument storage and library space, a computer lab, and two piano/MIDI keyboard labs. Music Camp rehearsals and activities will also be housed in the Lightsey Music Building and Lightsey Chapel Auditorium, a spacious and well-equipped concert venue that seats an audience of 1550 people. Comprehensive recreation facilities will be available to campers, including a swimming pool, basketball courts, tennis courts, weight rooms, ping-pong and lounge and snack bar areas in the adjacent Brewer Center and Buc Park.

Each band and orchestra student will be expected to furnish his or her own instrument and bring a folding metal music stand. Only concert percussion equipment and pianos will be available from the Horton School of Music.

PIANO CAMP
Piano Camp will be available to students from grades six through 12 who have performed on piano for at least two years, instruction in technique, literature, music theory, ensemble performance, and theory will be a part of the camp. Each piano camp student will receive four half-hour private lessons during the camp and will also participate by singing in a mixed chorus. Total price for the Piano Camp is $400, which includes lessons. Piano campers should bring at least three pieces of standard literature (no pop arrangements, please) to camp, two of which should be performance ready.

PRIVATE LESSONS
Private Lessons are available on each instrument and for voice and piano. The fee for a half-hour lesson is $25 and may be elected by any camp student. A four-hour lesson is available to students for $125. Students must have at least one previous piano experience. In the event of an illness or injury to a camper, the staff will contact parents and escort that student to the health care facility of choice for prompt professional medical care. Several facilities are also available to parents, including Trident Medical Center and walk-in clinics. Costs resulting from medical care, medication, x-rays, or lab work are the responsibility of the parent. If the unlikely event that a student would need hospital care, immediate transportation would be arranged. Costs resulting from hospital treatment are the parent's responsibility. HOUSING, MEALS & SUPERVISION
Dorm campers will be housed in CSU dormitories. Dorm and day campers will eat all meals at any of the CSU Dining Halls. Campers must bring their own sheets, towels and pillow from home. Campers will be housed two to four per room. Friends who wish to room together should approach through the day after mid-night registration at the same time. Housing for Saturday night, at the end of camp, is not provided. Meal plan begins Monday evening after check-in and dinner on Saturday. Meals will be served cafeteria style and will be available to eat as much as they wish at every meal with a wide variety of choices. While staying in the residence halls, all camp students will be under the careful supervision of the Music Camp Staff. Counselors will live in the dormitories and assist with all rehearsals and daytime activities in order to closely monitor all aspects of camp life.

JUNE 26-JULY 1, 2017
PARENTAL APPROVAL

I encourage my child to participate in the CSU Summer Music Camp. I agree to support all camp rules and regulations. I understand that final ensemble placement decisions rest with the ensemble directors and camp director and agree to abide by those placements. I understand that the Music camp staff will make every effort to accommodate rooming requests, but that roommate arrangements cannot be guaranteed. I further agree that Summer Music Camp has permission to use any photographs or video taken during camp in future advertising. I assume financial responsibility for health care costs including the cost of any medication, x-rays, lab work or hospitalization.

REFUND POLICY - You may cancel your application for Summer Music Camp and receive a refund less $50.00 (nonrefundable deposit) only if the request is made prior to two weeks before the beginning of camp. No money will be refunded for any reason after the two week deadline. Students arriving late for camp or leaving early are not eligible for monetary compensation. The $50 registration deposit is not refundable for any reason.
