

POTENTIAL GRADUATION APPLICANTS
FOR SPRING OR SUMMER 2010

- If you plan on graduating this spring 2010 you should start the graduation process now. A student who intends to graduate must contact the Office of the Registrar to initiate the graduation process. Students must complete an Application for Graduation and pay the $115.00 graduation fee. The fee is the same whether you participate in commencement or not. The fee does cover the cost of your cap, gown and hood.
- The deadline to apply for spring graduation and pay the $115.00 graduation fee is February 12, 2010. The fee is not due when you apply, so apply early so you know you are eligible to graduate.
  - .... Apply at the Office of the Registrar or *online
  - .... Pay at the Business Office Cashier's Window or online
- The deadline to apply for summer graduation and pay the $115.00 graduation fee is May 28, 2010. The fee is not due when you apply, so apply early so you know you are eligible to graduate.
  - .... Apply at the Office of the Registrar or *online
  - .... Pay at the Business Office Cashier's Window or online
- To be eligible for graduation, all accounts at the University must be settled—including the Student Account Balance, Library Fines, and Parking Tickets.
- There will be a commencement ceremony May 8, 2010 at the North Charleston Coliseum for spring graduates. There is no summer ceremony, but your degree will be conferred August 6, 2010.
